

AN OFFICERS' AFFAIR . . . The newly elected and the retiring officers of the Torrance Memorial Hospital auxiliary gathered for a pool party at the home of Mrs. W. C. Boswell last Monday afternoon. Even though it was "for fun," the afternoon's conversation was spiced with bits of business with retiring officers explaining the office duties to the new comer. In a huddle at the poolside are Mrs. Boswell in the pool; Mrs. Gerald Eastham, left, outgoing Pinkie chairman, and Mrs. William E. Grubbs, second vice president.

YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

I Must Decide Which Parent to Live With

Dear Ann: I'm 20, have a married sister 24, and a younger sister 11. Our parents have been married 31 years. Mother just told me she is divorcing Dad. This was no surprise as they haven't gotten along well for years.

I love both parents but I favor my dad. I live at home although I have a full time job and go to night school. When the split comes I must decide which parent to live with.

My older sister has no problem as she has a home of her own. The 11-year-old needs a mother so she'll naturally go with Mom. Dad will be alone if I don't choose him. At the same time I know Mother will be crushed if I don't decide to live with her.

I feel Dad needs me, but I hate to hurt Mother. My head is spinning and I can't make a decision. Help me! — TORN BETWEEN TWO LOVES Follow your heart—and go with Dad. This is the wisest decision for two reasons. First, it's what you WANT to do. Second if you don't, your Dad will have no one. Your Mother has your younger sister.

Dear Ann: I'm a junior guy, 17. My sister is 15. She's allowed to stay out until midnight when she's with girls and 12:30 when on a date. I have to be home at 12:00 regardless.

My grades are in the 80's. I have a driver's license but can't drive the family car because insurance is so high. It takes me an hour to get home when I have a date. If I make good bus connections, if I miss a bus it takes an hour and a half.

Do you think it's fair that I have to leave dances and parties before they're over? Will you help me?—C.B.W.

Dear C.B.W.: This school term is almost shot. Don't put on a campaign for the few remaining days. It isn't worth it. During the summer months, demonstrate at every opportunity what a careful driver you are.

Offer to do extra things to show you've grown up. Kids don't realize this is the best way to get additional privileges. Don't use $15 as a wedge. It will only becloud the issue. By fall you should be able to take the family car once every two weeks or get an hour's grace. If you can't hack it, write again and I'll plead your case once more.

Dear Ann: Are all men sneaks or did I get a lemon? Everything is in his name and I don't own a bloomin' thing legally. Whenever I want

MRS. ROBERT L. FULLER . . . June Bride (Portrait by Seeman)

Marilyn Hockey Exchanged Vows With Robert Fuller

In a nuptial mass performed at St. Lawrence Church Monday at 8 a.m. by Rev. Father Charles Ara, Miss Marilyn Joyce Hockey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Hockey Sr. of 22503 Reynolds Dr., and Robert L. Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Fuller of 2719 Whitmore Road were united in marriage.

The bride wore a ballerina gown of white lace over taffeta, edged in satin, and carried a prayer book which bore a white orchid surrounded by gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. G. D. Hockey Jr. was matron-of-honor for her sister-in-law and Neil T. Lynch was best man.

A buffet dinner reception for 75 guests took place at the home of the bride's parents at 6 p.m. Following a wedding trip to Catalina Island, the newlyweds will live in Santa Ana, where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Marines.

Mrs. Wolf Fetes Board
Mrs. Don Wolf, past president of the Torrance Woman's Club, recently entertained her outgoing board with a luncheon and party at her home, at 21804 Halldale Ave.

Those attending the luncheon included: Mmes. John Thuss, newly-elected president; Leonorus Stamps, H. G. Stephens, A. S. Moore, John Muhleck, J. P. Bay, Roy Apsey, Andrew Acampora, Charles Ward, Sid Gans, Rufus Sandstrom, and J. G. Louvier, past president of the Junior Woman's Club.

Newlyweds To Make Home In Inglewood

Escorted by her father, Miss Jean Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hardy of 21102 Budlong, became the bride of Donald Wayne Hancock, son of Ralph Hancock of Los Angeles Saturday in a ceremony performed at the First Baptist Church of Hawthorne at 8:30 p.m. Rev. Geo. H. Moseley officiated.

For her wedding gown, Miss Hardy selected white chantilly lace over satin with a sweetheart neckline and a chapel length train. In place of a bouquet she carried a white orchid with pink rosebuds on a Bible.

Carrying a basket of spring flowers, Miss Sharon Hardy was maid of honor for her sister. She wore an aqua dress of organza over taffeta fashioned with a tulip neckline.

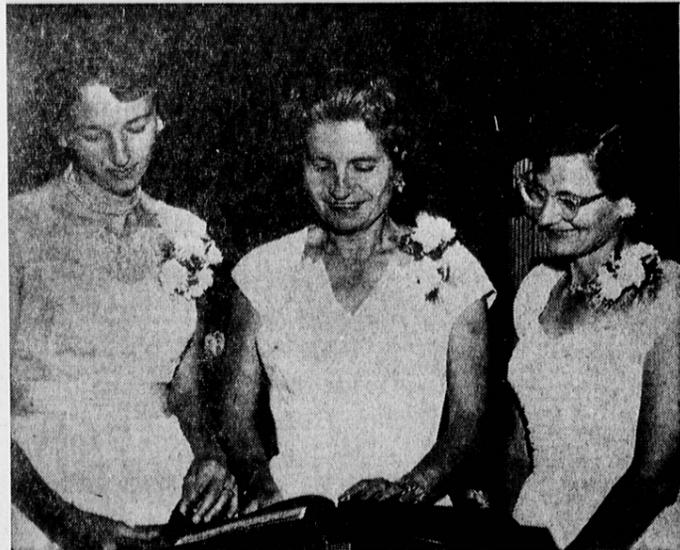

Dressed in geranium rose organza gowns and carrying baskets of spring flowers, the bridesmaids were Sharon Blanford, Marian Parnell and Barbara Ramsey. Robert Root was best man.

Ushers included Ronald Blanford, Larry Schiavel and John Brasuro.

Accompanied by Mrs. Stella Moseley, organist, Mrs. Delma Jackson sang "Always," "Wither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer." A reception followed the ceremony at the church.

The new Mrs. Hancock attended Leuzinger High school in Lawndale, while her husband is a former student of Morton Memorial High school in Indiana.

Upon completion of a Santa Barbara honeymoon, the newlyweds will reside in Inglewood.
